City Administrator Lund reported:

- Plum Street should be open by the time school starts, weather permitting.
- This will be the city’s last year for major street construction for awhile.
- Researching sales tax trends and compared Atlantic to 10 other similar cities in Iowa; Atlantic is #1 out of those ten cities. Appears that Cass County has a tremendous pull factor.

Mayor Jones urged motorists to be aware and be careful with school starting next week. He also reported that some citizens had approached him over an increase in property taxes.

Sarah Schorle, student representative reported the honor marching band had a successful blood drive; Monday is Freshman orientation; Thursday is the first day of classes.

Council Committee reports were as follows: Jimerson – Fire Department, Community Protection; Somers – Public Safety Commission, Personnel & Finance; Hartkopf – Airport; Casady – CPC; Halder- CADCO, Library; Brink- Planning & Zoning, Chamber, Community Protection.

Motion by Casady; second by Hartkopf to approve the bills totaling $799,069.59. All ayes. Motion carried.

Motion by Brink; second by Hayes to approve July financial reports.

Tommy Gaines was present and asked council to clarify Personnel & Finance Committee’s recommendation to use two city-owned lots for in-fill housing and sell the lots if there is no interest shown in six months.
