

CASS COUNTY CONSERVATION BOARD

February 2014

CONSERVATION UPDATES:

Schedule now for the Great Backyard Bird Count, the count is February 14-17th! I will come in give some basic bird ID and run the class through the recording sheets and how to report on line if the teacher would like to go that route! We want the Cass County area to #1 again this year! Great for 5th grade and up! There is not much room left!!

Looking for a different field trip? Get trained as an IOWATER volunteer! We are bringing a training to Cass county so teachers (4th gr and up) can get certified and then take classes on field trips to do the water monitoring. If you are already certified you can attend as a refresher or pass along to others. We hope to help with funding of supplies or busing fees once we have more people trained. You may contact me for more information or Wendy Wittrock 243-1991 or casscountylandfill@gmail.com
